M 5 - narration

There are four characters in the story: Gilbert Clandon, Angela Clandon, Sissy Miller and B. M.; for each character, explain HOW the reader learns about them. Use the table below.

name of character	HOW / mode
Gilbert	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through:
Angela	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through:
Sissy Miller	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through:
B. M.	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through:

----- ✂ ---------- ✂ ---------- ✂ ---------- ✂ ---------- ✂ ---------- ✂ ---

M 5 - narration

There are four characters in the story: Gilbert Clandon, Angela Clandon, Sissy Miller and B. M.; for each character, explain HOW the reader learns about them. Use the table below.

name of character	HOW / mode
Gilbert	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through:
Angela	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through:
Sissy Miller	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through:
B. M.	through an authorial narrator through Gilbert's thoughts through direct speech through diary entries	☐ ☐ ☐ ☐	mostly through: