The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox window with the title "Creative Commons Search - Mozilla Firefox". The address bar displays the URL <http://search.creativecommons.org/>. A tooltip above the search bar says: "Weitere Optionen durch Setzen eines Häkchens in der Checkbox aktivieren." Below the search bar is a text input field labeled "Enter search query" with a "go" button. To the right of the search bar are two checkboxes: "Search for works I can use for commercial purposes." and "Search for works I can modify, adapt, or build upon.". Below these checkboxes are links for "What is this?", "Content Directories", and "Remove Frame". A blue callout box points to the "Enter search query" field with the text "Suchbegriff(e) eingeben." A larger blue callout box points to the "Search for works I can modify, adapt, or build upon." checkbox. The main content area contains instructions: "Choose a search engine tab above and enter search query. Then click "go" to find Creative Commons-licensed media that you can legally share and reuse for free." It also mentions a video titled "Wanna Work Together?". At the bottom of the page are links for "Creative Commons" and "Contact". The status bar at the bottom left shows "Flash.revver.com gelesen".
