3. Again, close your eyes and relax. Think of the book you have read.
Think about your response to the book's message. Did you gain any insight about a subject, or do you suddenly understand something ... while you were reading the book? Did the book make you act differently in any way or change your plans for the future?
After ...
4. Last time, close your eyes and relax. Think about the book you have read.
Think about the author. Imagine a meeting in his house, in his living room. You are having a relaxed conversation. You feel fine because talking to him/her is easy. What are you talking about? Which topics come up? What do you say? What does he/she say?
